Ingredients and food additives
Persimmon (produce of Nishikan Ward, Niigata City; variety: Hiratanenashi)
Selling point
Persimmons cultivated by Kunimi Farm Produce that have been peeled, naturally dried, and hand-massaged so that they dry evenly. This is an old traditional production method. The white powder found on the surface is sugar that has leaked from inside the fruit and crystallized. These dried persimmons contain no additives.

Ingredients and food additives
Rice (produce of Nishikan Ward, Niigata City)
Selling point
Koshihikari rice cultivated without using pesticides or chemical fertilizers. Weeds are the arch enemy of rice cultivation. Weeding by hand requires a great amount of labor, but we were helped by mallard ducks. This rice will move you with its robust, delicious flavor. Very popular in Switzerland. Also available as brown rice.
