

I'm beside you

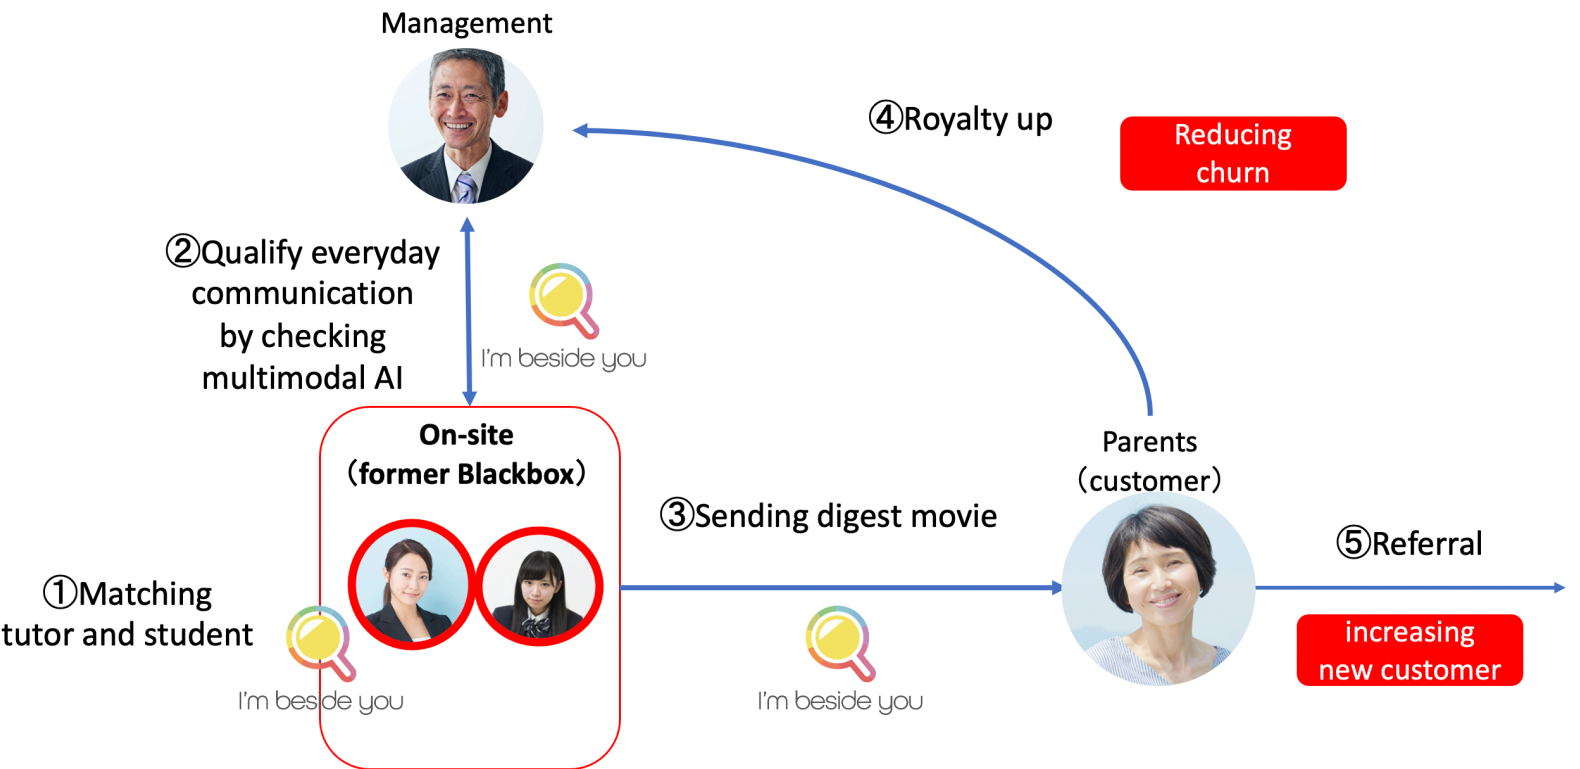

We visualize you're one and only.

In the midst of a rapidly growing online presence with the Covid-19 environment, the irreplaceable individuality of each person is becoming increasingly difficult to see.

Our AI, which is more considerate to people than humans, makes communication visible and changes the environment to make it easier for each individual to live as he or she is.

We will continue to take on the challenge to create a kind society where everyone can truly believe that "Everyone is different and that's good".

New core system of online education

Established on June 25, 2020, applied for 15 international patents
Top 20 finalist of Creating the New Normal @Slingshot2020

We are the one and only Corona Native Company.
